WHEAT ACREAGE REDUCTION
THE PRAIRIE FARM ASSISTANCE ACT
PRAIRIE FARM INCOME

Published by authority of
THE HONOURABLE J. G. GARDINER
Minister of Agriculture

Introduction

The following are statements of expenditures in the Prairie Provinces, including the Creston and Peace River areas of British Columbia for Prairie Farm Assistance in 1939, 1940, 1941 and 1943, Wheat Acreage Reduction in 1941, 1942 and 1943 and Prairie Farm Income in 1941. The Wheat Acreage Reduction (W.A.R.) payments were made for acreage diverted from wheat to certain other crops or to summerfallow. Awards for Prairie Farm Assistance (P.F.A.) were made pursuant to the Prairie Farm Assistance Act. In the year 1939, an Emergency Year was declared in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta and in addition, there was a Crop Failure area declared in Saskatchewan. In 1940, an Emergency Year was declared in the three Prairie Provinces but there were no Crop Failure areas. An Emergency Year was declared in 1941 in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta and in the same year Crop Failure areas were declared in Saskatchewan and Alberta. In the year 1942, the Prairie Farm Assistance Act was not operative owing to favourable crop conditions in the three Prairie Provinces. Alberta was declared a Crop Failure area in 1943 whereas in Saskatchewan and Manitoba an Emergency Year only was declared. Incidentally, the statement of payments under the 1943 P.F.A. program indicates the amount expended as at March 21st, 1944. The payments for Prairie Farm Income (P.F.I.) were at the rate of seventy-five cents per acre on one-half the cultivated acreages of the farms, the maximum award on any farm being limited to one-half of 400 acres of cultivated land.

A general summary sets out the distribution by programs, without reference to Provinces, of the total expenditure of $139,701,576.52. It gives the division of the total paid under each program for the various years; under Wheat Acreage Reduction, the actual reduction in wheat acreage is shown together with the number of farmers who received payments, as well as the categories of townships for payment under the Prairie Farm Assistance Act and the number of farmers involved; the total number of farmers receiving award under Prairie Farm Income and the average payment to each is also stated.

There is a summary of payments under all policies in the various years for each Province. This is supplemented by a statement of payments in each Municipality in each Province. Payments in the Peace River District of British Columbia are included in the summary for the Province of Alberta, while those in the Creston area are included for purpose of Administration in the summary for the Province of Saskatchewan.

Administration of the programs was conducted from the three Offices serving the Provinces in which they were located; Winnipeg, Manitoba; Regina, Saskatchewan, and Edmonton, Alberta.
